What is notice on teacher's home visit? ...
Answer is:

Teacher's home visit, called as Kateihomon, aimed to deepen mutual understanding and trust between school and home through seeing the home and how child is living in the home. Notice is sent to home one week or 10 days before home visit.

Up to 3 years in jail or five hundred thousand yen of fine for drunk driving of bicycle- Do you know that?

The Diet passed a proposal to revise road traffic law last April. This revised law is to be promulgated within a year and will come into force this spring. The revised law aimed especially to let driver of bicycle (light vehicle) to keep traffic rule. Rules to be banned or strictly to keep are such as followings . . . .

- ① Drunk cycling be subject to up to 3 years in jail or fined up to 500,000 yen, same as automobile.
  - ② Cyclist gabbing on the cell phone.
  - ③ Cycling without holding handlebars.
  - ④ Unsafe cycling holding an umbrella.
  - ⑤ Riding with two children on a bicycle in attached front and rear seats.
  - ⑥ Cycling without light at night.
  - ⑦ Violation of stopping at crossing.
  - ⑧ Keeping right (except inevitable case).
  - ⑨ Cycling of more than two bicycles side by side.
  - ⑩ Turn to right or left without making a sign.
  - ⑪ Doesn't use cycling road as specified.
  - ⑫ Riding in reckless way.
  - ⑬ Riding double on a bicycle (except riding child under 6 years old by person of 16 years and over).
- In principle, bicycle will be required to be ridden in left side of road lanes

Those who live in Japan should know Japanese traffic rules to keep yourself safe and secure
